BABCOCK ADMITS IT.

Millwaukee, October 24.—Congressman Joseph W. Babcock, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, is rather put out because the insurance inquiry conducted in New York divulged the information that Babcock, for the committee, had received the trifling amount of $2500 of trust funds from the Mutual Life Assurance Company to be used for political purposes.

"Yes, the testimony as published regarding my transaction with the Mutual was substantially correct," said Babcock. "The attorney for the company, who was on the stand, told the story straight. The only regret I have is that the amount was not larger. It should have been. Of course, I got the money he referred to, but you understand it was for the Congressional Committee, of which I am only one member. There was nothing to be ashamed of in the transaction; it was perfectly above board in every way."

"We asked these companies to contribute, as we did other corporations. We showed to them that it was for the benefit of their own prosperity that they assist in keeping the Republican party in power. It was—so to speak—a premium they paid out, which was to insure continued prosperity."

THE BRIDE'S TASK.

Mr. Justwed: "Now that we're married, dear, you have a serious task before you."
Mrs. Justwed: "What's that, George?"
Mr. Justwed: "You must prove to my sisters that you are worthy of me."

Social Side of Life

There is always an exodus to the country on Sundays and last week was no exception to the rule. At the Peninsula the Prince and Princess Kawanao gave a pool luncheon at which there were many guests. The Angus houseboat, so picturesque and comfortable, entertained a number of friends and the Macfarlanes had a house party at the ranch. At Haleiwa the golfers held forth and the hospitable little hotel was crowded to overflowing. There were picnics at Koko Head and it seemed as if all the country hosts were entertaining on that particular Sunday. It is a relief to get into the country, for Honolulu, no matter how charming, one grows tired of, and there comes a longing upon one for "fresh fields and pastures new."

The Moana Hotel hop, given in honor of the officers and ladies of the Fifteenth Infantry on board the Sherman, was a particularly gay and brilliant affair. There were many dinner parties preceding the dance, which was given in the dining room. The popular Ellis Quintet, that famous fishing music and the number of pretty women and handsome officers were much remarked upon. There were seven brides in all on the Sherman, including Mrs. Upham—such a charming girl—the wife of Lieut. Upham, so well known in social circles in Honolulu. Then there was lovely Mrs. Ward, wife of Lieut. Ward, Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Hickox. Mrs. McLane, Mrs. Butcher, charming women. Every room in the hotel was taken and the lanais and grounds were most popular. The band of the Fifteenth gave a concert on the grounds before the dance. The townspeople took advantage of the gaieties of the evening, but the guests most noticeable were the officers and their wives. Mr. Hertcoe made everybody feel at home and, of course, all the Fifteenth knew Fred. Church, late manager of the Hawaiian hotel, and they felt at home directly they saw his genial countenance. The new addition to the Moana in the shape of more bath houses was favorably commented upon, and the popular hostelry bids fair to become the Army and Navy hotel. The Sherman sailed at noon Wednesday and crowds of people were down to see her off. Captain Berger and his band, as well as the transport band, played alternately.

Miss Leontine Hartnagle has been entertained during her visit to San Francisco. She is staying with Mrs. Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Kelley and sister of Mrs. Rannie Scott. A tea was given in her honor and Miss Jessie Kaufmann entertained her at dinner. When she last wrote the news of Mr. Isenberg's death had not reached her. Miss Hartnagle expected to meet the Isenbergs in San Francisco.

A birthday party was given Mrs. McAllister, wife of Captain McAllister, at their home on Gulick avenue, Kalihi. The house is delightfully situated and Estella, the young daughter of the McAllisters was the hostess. The party was a complete surprise, for written invitations had been sent enjoining the strictest secrecy. Mrs. McAllister was quite overcome, but soon recovered and greeted her friends in her delightful way. Miss Estella McAllister is a charming girl and played the part of hostess to perfection, although she is only 12 years old. Music, speeches and delicious refreshments made the evening a memorable one.

Mrs. Mary Gunn has been too ill to attend to school classes this week. She is at her Waikiki home and her friends hope she will recover by next week.

Pastor Wadman, who has been on Kauai for some time, returned to Honolulu this week.

Mrs. Hawes entertained at luncheon on Saturday for Miss Margaret Delinger. The table held a centerpiece in a large silver bowl of deep pink carnations and maiden hair—the same flowers were scattered over the cloth and the place cards were hand painted roses. These present were Misses Catton, Switzer, Fisher, Neumann, Swanzy and Hedemann.

Mr. Richard Buhler and his talented company are playing to packed houses at every performance. The little dancer, Miss Chandler, is most graceful and between the acts wins much applause. The plays are all first class and are well acted. The Symphony Orchestra plays unusually well and their numbers are much appreciated. The boxes are always filled and standing room only has been the order of the week. Orpheum parties are quite the rage and everybody seems anxious to take advantage of the attractive performances.

Mr. Charles H. Bishop was a passenger in the Ananaki for a business trip to Mexico.

The C. Hedemanns are booked to return on the 25th of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond de B. Lays entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening, their guests being Judge and Mrs. Stanley, Dr. and Mrs. Humphris, Miss Higford, Mr. Jameson and Mr. Colburn.

Mr. E. E. Hartmann was host on Wednesday evening at a beautifully appointed dinner at the Moana hotel. Mrs. Butcher, charming women. Every room in the hotel was taken and the lanais and grounds were most popular. The band of the Fifteenth gave a concert on the grounds before the dance. The townspeople took advantage of the gaieties of the evening, but the guests most noticeable were the officers and their wives. Mr. Hertcoe made everybody feel at home and, of course, all the Fifteenth knew Fred. Church, late manager of the Hawaiian hotel, and they felt at home directly they saw his genial countenance. The new addition to the Moana in the shape of more bath houses was favorably commented upon, and the popular hostelry bids fair to become the Army and Navy hotel. The Sherman sailed at noon Wednesday and crowds of people were down to see her off. Captain Berger and his band, as well as the transport band, played alternately.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sieke of San Francisco expect to visit in Honolulu the first of December. They will be guests at the Moana hotel.

Major and Mrs. Fuller are taking a cottage at the hotel Annex on December 1st. These cottages are all en Joyed and there is some talk of a cafe in connection with the Annex—a convenience which the guests would greatly appreciate.

The fairy book written by Mrs. Day based upon Hawaii legends is having quite a vogue in the east. It is beautifully written and exquisitely gotten up.

The Alexander Young Hotel on Monday evening was the scene of one of the most brilliant functions ever given in Honolulu, the occasion being "Ladies' Night" of Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E. The ball-rooms and the roof garden of the palatial hotel were given over to the Elks and no one could gain admission unless a ticket was presented. The roof garden, which covers the space of one block was a veritable fairy land. Not a drop of rain marred the pleasures of the evening and the air was so entrancing that one could sit out on the roof without a wrap of any kind in full evening dress and thoroughly enjoy the beautiful scene without any thought of cold for the next morning. It was a glorious moonlight night, and every stranger was heard to remark upon the unusual conditions, for, not even in California, can we sit out of doors the whole evening in a low neck frock without the fear of taking cold, but it is quite the usual order of things in Honolulu and we are so used to it that we never give it a thought. One visiting Elk from the Eastern States said "And this is November 13th. Why, if I were home sleet, rain and snow would be my lot. I shall visit Honolulu again and bring my wife and family."

The decorations were superb. Circles of electric lights were very effective and the Elks head was seen on every side. American and Hawaiian flags were used in the decorative scheme and the purple pennant waved in the breeze. A delightful musical and literary program was listened to—in the malikali ball room. The numbers were announced by Exalted Ruler George Angus and were as follows: "Tannam," the Nationa Quintet; solo, Mr. Webb; solo, Mrs. C. B. Cooper; solo, Mr. H. F. Wichman; piano solo, Mrs. Noah W. Gray; recitation, Mr. Bruce Hartman; solo, Mrs. Ranney Scott; solo, Mr. Robert White. This program was rendered in a delightful manner and gave pleasure to all. The quintet clubs occupied the platform of the ball rooms and dancing was kept up until a late hour. A unique feature of the evening was the turning out of all the lights on the roof garden except the softly glowing red one at 11 o'clock, and the singing of the Elks' toasts by Mr. Hugo Herber. His beautiful voice rang out strong and true, "Auld Lang Syne" was sung lastly and a song struck eleven times during the impressive silence which followed. There were fully eight hundred guests present and the arrangements for their comfort were carried out in every detail with the greatest care. To Mr. Noah Gray, who is an Elk, is due much praise for the perfect arrangements, and the supper which was served on the roof was delicious. Lemonade punch flowed freely throughout the evening. The committees for ladies' night were as follows:

G. W. R. King, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Marston Campbell, F. E. Richardson, H. H. Simpson, Geo. H. Angus.

Reception Committee—Geo. T. Kluge, R. C. Stackable, F. L. Winter, Nelson Lansing.

Floor Committee—S. A. Walker, J. D. McInerney, C. A. Mackintosh.

Officers of Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E.—Geo. H. Angus, E. R. Harry E. Murray, E. L. K. Thos. E. Wall, E. L. K.; C. A. Musgrave, E. L. K.; H. H. Simpson, Secretary; W. T. Lucas, treasurer; G. T. Kluge, Esquire; E. E. Hartman, Tyler; Rev. A. Mackintosh, Chaplain; W. P. Fennell, Inner Guard.

Trustees—F. E. Richardson, F. E. Thompson, Norman Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitch are expected on the 25th at the Alexander Young hotel.

Captain and Mrs. Miller announce the engagement of their daughter, Caroline, to J. W. E. Laker, engineer of the cable ship Restorer.

Last Saturday night, Miss Boardman and Miss McMillan promoted a sheet and pillow party. Previously, a dinner party was given by Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., who said he was celebrating his twenty-first birthday. After it was all over he confessed to two years more and acknowledged that it wasn't even the date. His guests included Miss Roosevelt, Mrs. Higgins of Washington, the Misses Taylor of Norfolk, Miss Robeson of Brookline, Mass.; Miss McCull of New York and Messrs. Wetmore, Keyburn, Thomas, Ackert, Chapin, Holman and Noyes. The young men are all college conferees of the host.

Foolish favors, poems and other eccentricities added to the fun of the occasion. Everybody, old and young, entered into the spirit of the occasion. At least a dozen of the larger men, including Senators Scott, Warren and Long and many of the most grave and dignified members of the House, stuffed pillows underneath their sheets.

For a long time it seemed that the Secretary was at every turn. Quite the most alluring figure was that of Representative Nicholas Longworth. He also had a pillow accompaniment. On top of his head, which was enveloped in white, he wore a crushed hat. Both arms were bared ready for any trouble. When the band played a Hawaiian air, his graceful movements, with pillow accompaniment, were really quite beyond descriptive power. Later a cake walk elicited admiration. Special Correspondence of the Boston Herald, aboard the Manchuria.

The Missionary Gleaners held a very successful musicale at the residence of Mr. Theodore Richards on Thursday evening. Mr. F. J. Lowrey announced the numbers, which were as follows: Japanese, Chinese, Hawaiian, France, Neapolitan, Scot, Spanish, German and American. The object of the concert was a worthy one and brought out a large number despite the inclement weather. The artists all acquitted themselves in a creditable manner and the concert was indeed a noteworthy affair.

The annual session of the Medical Society is being held at the Alexander Young hotel. A banquet will end the program on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell delightful strangers from Goldfields, are at the Moana hotel. It is not the Campbell's first visit for they were here about eight years ago. They are charmed with the place and its stride toward improvement is very noticeable in the ensuing years. Mr. Campbell is a mining engineer representing the Schwab interests.

Mrs. Werthmuller had a very interesting pupils' recital this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holbrook entertained at a very delightful dinner on Thursday evening at a downtown cafe in honor of Miss Grace Spreckels and Alexander Hamilton, whose wedding is to be celebrated in the near future. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Baker and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spreckels, Jr.—Chronicle.

Mrs. Lewton-Brain has a younger sister coming out from India for a visit. She is expected to arrive about December first.

Mrs. Herman Focke was the hostess of a pool lunch on Tuesday for Miss Elsa Schaefer. At each place was a corange of violets and violet place cards added a dainty touch. Those present were, besides the guest of honor Miss Elsa Schaefer, Mrs. E. A. Rosa, Misses Irmgard Schaefer, Cordie Walker, Geraldine Neumann, Nellie Alexander, Hartwell, Elsie Waterhouse, Nora Sturgeon and Jennie Giffard.

Several dinners, etc., to be given for Mr. Otto Hillefeld, of Hackfeld & Co., have been postponed owing to the death of Mr. Isenberg. Mr. Hillefeld leaves on the Manchuria for Germany to spend Christmas with his family, and after a few months with them he will depart for Mosambique, Africa, to take a position as director in a gold and copper mine.

Miss May Schweitzer is giving a lunch today in honor of her sister's natal anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Josselyn, and the Misses Josselyn, who have been in Paris for some months, returned to San Francisco last Sunday to spend the winter here.—Chronicle.

Hon. and Mrs. S. M. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. E. Freeth and Miss Campbell are expected in Honolulu the last of the month. Miss Muriel Campbell, who was so seriously ill in San Francisco, is fast recovering.

The Camp McKinley Social Club are to give a dance in Progress Hall on the evening of November 25th.

The first view of the Kilohana Art League exhibition at their rooms in the Young building next Monday evening is sure to be interesting.

Preparations for the Loan exhibit are going on with great energy. On the 23rd, if not on the 24th a supper will be served, and on the 24th from 12 until 2 a luncheon.

Mr. F. W. Mange gave a dinner at the Hawaiian hotel for Captain Harry Smith and wife of the transport Sherman, on Tuesday evening. He also took them around the island in his auto touring car.

The Girls Basketball League will have a competitive game this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. grounds, corner Hotel and Richards street. The lineup for the two games is as follows:

The first games will be played at 4 p. m. and the second at 4:45 p. m. The officials will be: Carrie Crewes, referee; Florence Hall and Elsie Smith, umpires; Mary Crewes, scorer; Hilda Robinson and Irene Fisher, timekeepers.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Captain C. J. Grummiere, commander of the transport Sherman, to Miss Emma Leibert, sister of Mrs. N. P. Fennell, at San Jose, Cal., November 1st.

Captain Josselyn's sea yarn, which he so ably told at Punahou last evening, brought out a large and appreciative audience who listened with bated breath to the yarn spinner. The musical program was excellent and consisted of the following artists: Mrs. Sheppard, pianist; Miss Elsie Weithmuller, pianist; Mr. Hugo Herber and Mr. R. C. Brown sang the "Larboard Watch." The proceeds were for the Kanalu Rowing Club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Fair of Halifax, N. S., are guests at the Royal Hawaiian for the winter. Mr. Fair is connected with the Sam Duseman Company of Canada.

Mr. D. L. Van Dine of the U. S. Experiment Station, leaves this week for the coast. His family are still in New York.

Bishop Libert and Father Valentine are expected about December 1st.

Doctor Arnitage of Wailuku is at the Alexander Young hotel.

One of the most enjoyable gatherings of the season was that given by Mr. C. C. Kennedy Friday evening in honor of his brother, Mr. James A. Kennedy, and Mrs. G. Deacon and Mrs. McG. Deacon. A social good time was had by all present. Several Scotch songs rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were much enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Castendyk Holmes, Lindsay McKay, Mr. Marsh, Shipman, Wilson; Mrs. McG. Deacon, Mr. G. Deacon, J. A. Kennedy, C. C. Kennedy, Dr. J. J. Grace, J. A. Scott, L. Severance, Chas. Furneaux, H. W. M. Mist—Hilo Tribune.

Dr. C. L. Siow gave a stag dinner Thursday night to a number of choice spirits. The occasion was the celebration of King Edward's birthday. By a coincidence, the same day was the natal day of the host, which gave the affair a personal flavor. Those present were: Dr. A. Irwin, Dr. W. H. Schoenling, H. E. Austin, N. G. Campion, R. E. Baldwin—Hilo Tribune.

STIRRING MYSTERY AGAIN AT ORPHEUM

"Ned Keene was the dectre fine in his part: Noah was the serrant and he was the every best in his part netting. Shadow act fine in robing his uncl. Kate Burke do don as good work in town down the roap and safe Ned Keene. And at lass shadow was cut in the trap by Ned Keene."

The above was written by a boy in the gallery at the Orpheum last night. "The Man of Mystery," a stirring melodrama, in which a sleek villain, cloaking his devilry with bold words, robs the uncle with whom he lives, attempts the life of his half sister because of her knowledge of his crime and attempts to poison a woman he had wronged, and who has a detective on his trail, who, incidentally, finds time to fall in love while on duty in disguise, moved a big crowd to enthusiasm. The play will be presented again tonight for the last time.

Comedy played a strenuous part and an exciting situation marked each curtain fall.

Mystery was plentiful, as it should be in a detective story, and the house was worked to a high pitch of appropriate emotion.

Richard Buhler played the villain of the piece, "The Shadow," to perfection. Miss Hayward, as the wronged woman, revealed a
